

DART Aerospace Expands European Coverage with a New UK Based Office

Hawkesbury, Ontario, Canada (October 12, 2016) - DART Aerospace is proud to announce the opening of its new UK based office. In the last year DART has invested in building a regional team for the European territory. DART's focus is to offer exceptional customer service and to have qualified regional representatives located in the same time zone as our European customers. DART's Andrien Dillard and Lewis Brooks as well as our local partner Heliswiss Ibérica S.A. can serve customers in five local languages.

With this addition and the launch of the European AMC Network, DART now has the ability to offer accessible quality service to this strategic market. DART invites the European aerospace players to meet with its local team this week at Helitech International, booth #12C60.
